Overview

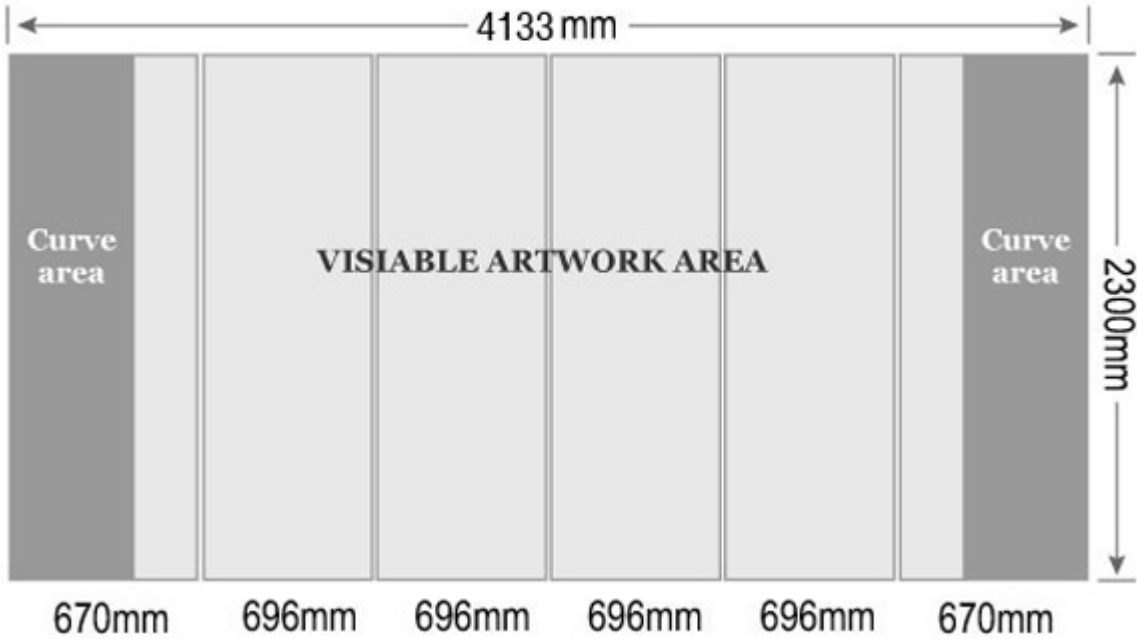

Description:

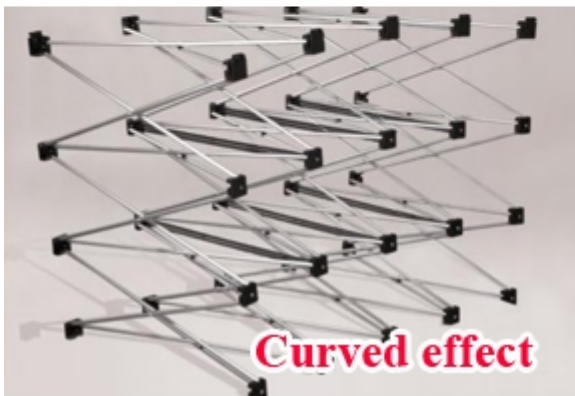

This trade show display is an attractive mural backdrop for exhibit booths. It's ten-foot wide and fits neatly into most trade show booths sizes. This pop-up display is easy to assemble. Users extend the banner simply by pulling it. The display frame is latched in place with the provided springs. Metal posts are attached magnetically with the background by clipping them into place. Printed on knitted polyester with a 720 dpi resolution, your custom graphic attract the attention to your booth. Each unit is easy-to-take or carry along with the included case. Every set of pop-up display comes with a heavy-duty travel case at no extra cost.
