A human billboard holds double sided banners or flags, so the advertising display is visible from `any` angle. Each backpack banner comes with a retractable aluminum built into `pole` on the backpack with a fiber post attached in the inside. There is also a pocket on the backside, to hold promotional information and all of this comes in a handy mesh carry bag to move easily. It can fit a printed fabric, flag or vinyl of 15-3/4" w up to a 49-1/4" h double sided. It has an easy assemble, follow the 5 steps.

1. Unscrew the fasteners on the aluminum pole and adjust the height.
2. To attach the publicity, slide the fiber through and attach it to the rubber ring to keep it on place.
3. Slip the backpack on.
4. Adjust both straps.
5. Buckle in front.

Now it easy to pass out brochures and talk to potential clients about your products! Wearing a human billboard as a portable graphic holder has proven to be an effective sales tool for many companies. Try it out and see immediate results.
