Overview

When exhibit space is scarce, an extra display surface can be a life saver!

If you have more to transport than just your graphics, then our heavy-duty molded pop-up transit case is the perfect solution. With its hard blown molded construction, this case will withstand the toughest shipping conditions. Bonus features a removable lid that can be used as a stool, foam lined internal storage for standard flood lights and a top cover that can be combined with a wrap to offer a case to counter conversion.

Applications:

Perfect for trade shows or exhibits, as a shipping case.
